

WATCHES  WATCHES  WATCHES

An unheard of desire to move them out. Saturday, Monday and Tuesday are special days to conduct the drive. I am determined to make things hum, and they are all to be solid gold. Now is the chance of a life-time to come in possession of a gem of rare beauty and of intrinsic value.

FRANKFORT, JANUARY 12, 1895.

THE COURTS.

United States, Appellate, Circuit and County.

The United States District Court met in the court-room at the Custom House in winter term on Monday, with Judge John W. Barr presiding, and W. J. Chinn, Clerk, District Attorney Smith, Assistant District Attorney Arthur Wallace, and Deputy Marshal Sam E. Blackburn present. The following grand jury was empaneled and charged by the Judge:

Thompson Burnam, Richmond, foreman; E. Power, Frankfort; W. J. Hughes, Frankfort; I. T. West, Frankfort; Jas. Sower, Frankfort; Jno. E. Miles, Frankfort; J. H. Switzer, Switzer; Eugene Rucker, Georgetown; J. N. Bradley, Georgetown; J. M. Hunt, Georgetown; H. K. Ward, Versailles, Chas. E. Cunningham, Harrodsburg; Richard Vowels, Sparrow; C. C. Trent, Lawrenceburg; J. W. Parrish, Midway; W. B. Childers, Georgetown.

After the grand jury had gone to its room the petit juries were called and the court proceeded to business. Quite a number of cases for violations of the internal revenue laws were disposed of the first of the week, but Thursday the civil docket, which is quite large, was taken up.

APPELLATE COURT.

The new Court of Appeals met in January term on Monday, with six judges present. Retiring Chief Justice Quigley presided at the opening of the court and until the orders made before the adjournment for the holidays were read and signed, when he retired and Judge W. S. Pryor commenced his two years' term as Chief Justice. Three of the newly elected Judges—Grace, Paynter and Guffy—presented their commissions, were sworn in by Deputy Clerk R. L. Green and took their seats on the bench. The docket of the day was then called by Chief Justice Pryor, after which the court adjourned for the day. Wednesday afternoon the court completed its reorganization by electing the officers to serve for the next four years.

Mr. E. W. Hines, who has made a splendid officer, was re-elected Reporter of the Court; Mr. W. S. B. Hill, the Sergeant-at-Arms, was also re-elected; Judge W. P. Coons, of Maysville, was elected Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms; Mr. C. C. Turner, of Mt. Sterling, was chosen as Tipstaff, and Mr. G. R. Rodman re-elected as Assistant Tipstaff.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Franklin Circuit Court also met on Monday, with Judge Jas. E. Cantrill presiding, and Commonwealth's Attorney John S. Smith present. The following grand jury was empaneled and charged:

J. W. Gaines, foreman; J. A. Williams, J. R. Hawkins, Jr., Jno. Mastin, Sr., R. L. Grinstead, W. J. Lee, J. A. Harrod, D. B. Walcutt, Henry Polsgrove, E. J. Parker, J. W. Suter and Church Vaughan.

The jury went to their room and the court adjourned for the day. Tuesday morning the petit juries reported and the criminal docket was taken up. The case of William Bradley, charged with the killing of Boley Dean about a year ago, was called, and both sides being ready, the trial was proceeded with. It occupied the time of the court until a late hour Wednesday night, when it was given to the jury. Thursday morning a verdict of not guilty was rendered.

The case of George McGee, the negro convict who murdered a fellow convict by cutting his throat in the dining room at the penitentiary several months ago, came up next, and late in the afternoon was given to the jury, who found him guilty of murder in the first degree and fixed his punishment at death.

COUNTY COURT.

The new County Court met in its first session Monday morning, County Judge Williams had himself sworn into office and then administered the oath of office to the newly elected County Attorney, Sheriff, Clerk, Jailor, Assessor, Surveyor and Magistrates.

The new court is composed of the County Judge and the following magistrates:

Frankfort—R. E. Gaines.
Bridgeport and Farmdale—C. H. Thomas.
Bald Knob, Fiat Creek and Benson—J. J. Harrod.
Peak's Mill and Bloomington—L. Hannen.
Forks of Elkhorn and Switzer—Jas. A. Lyon.

The following wills were probated:

James Fitzpatrick, B. M. Hawkins, Mrs. Susan A. Crutcher, W. B. Tracey, John J. Quinn and Bartlett Davis.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

The Board of Supervisors of Tax met at the Court House Monday morning and commenced going over the books of the Assessor. The board is composed of the following gentlemen: John S. Harrod, Geo. S. Green, Z. T. Thomason, John Driscoll, E. B. Wiley, Jesse Riddell, and S. M. Shields. Mr. Geo. S. Green was elected chairman and County Clerk N. B. Smith is acting as clerk.

J. W. Fairbanks,

Postmaster at Mankato, Neb., writes us as follows: I have taken but one package of your Dr. Hale's Household Tea and it is the first medicine I have found that has done me any good. For 30 years I have been troubled with liver and kidney troubles, growing worse all the time. For the last 10 years I have not been able to do much or any work. I feel dull, sleepy and as though I could not stir. My bowels would not move oftener than once a week. After taking one package I am much better and now can take hold and work. Have a good appetite and bowels regular. For dyspepsia, constipation, all liver and kidney troubles, etc., it has no equal. Only 25c. and 50c. a package at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store. a
